Passion of Loving Silence

Isaiah 53

A man had worked for a meat packing firm for many years. He had cut the throats of animals. He had heard the cattle bellow, the fowl squawk, the pigs squeal. One day a farmer brought a lamb to be slaughtered. With business as usual, the man took his sharp knife and cut the lamb's throat. The lamb did not squawk, squall, or flounder like other livestock did. It did not bellow and then slump like the cattle. The little lamb tottered toward its executioner, licked the blood from his hands, and began to totter from side to side. Then the lamb silently slumped and slipped into death.

The death of the lamb changed the life of the man who worked at the slaughter house forever. Within two weeks he quit the job never to return. It would be wonderful if the same could be said about Herod and his henchmen as they play their part in Jesus' death. That was not the case as you see their desire for amusement turned into raucous and spiteful humor at the expense of the suffering Savior. For them, His plight was nothing short of comedy. His suffering was only a way to pass an otherwise boring morning.

Since the day of Herod, many others have seen the Lamb of God pouring out His life. For them, He has been a vestige from the past, His Name only to be used in anger or obscene jokes. But for countless others, the sight of Jesus The Lamb of God silently, slowly dying, it makes no difference whether Jesus was appearing in front of a king, a procurator, or a crowd. He did not complain or fight. His only motivation was and is love. His silence was the price He paid to save your soul. It was a silence that has caused a change in your life that cannot be forgotten. Where once you were doomed, now you are delivered. You are changed because of the silent Lamb of God.

JOHN 1:29 BEHOLD THE LAMB, OF GOD WHICH TAKETH AWAY THE SIN OF THE WORLD.

Isaiah 53

1 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

2: For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3: He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4: Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5: But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

6: All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7: He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8: He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9: And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10: Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11: He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12: Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

1Chron:29:11: Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

Psa:98:1: O sing unto the LORD a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

Isa:25:8: He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

Mt:12:20: A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

1Cor:15:54: So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

1Cor:15:55: O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

1Cor:15:57: But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1Jn:5:4: For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

Rv:15:2: And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

IT'S IN THE VALLEYS I GROW

Sometimes life seems hard to bear,
Full of sorrow, trouble and woe
It's then I have to remember
That it's in the valleys I grow.

If I always stayed on the mountain top
And never experienced pain,
I would never appreciate God's love
And would be living in vain.

I have so much to learn
And my growth is very slow,
Sometimes I need the mountain tops,
But it's in the valleys I grow.

I do not always understand
Why things happen as they do,
But I am very sure of one thing.
My Lord will see me through.

My little valleys are nothing
When I picture Christ on the cross
He went through the valley of death;
His victory was Satan's loss.

Forgive me Lord, for complaining
When I'm feeling so very low.
Just give me a gentle reminder
That it's in the valleys I grow.

Continue to strengthen me, Lord
And use my life each day
To share your love with others
And help them find their way.

Thank you for valleys, Lord
For this one thing I know
The mountain tops are glorious
But it's in the valleys I grow!

(This poem was written by Jane Eggleston who currently lives in Virginia. Her son Jeff states, "She is a wonderful person, loves Jesus and has been the best mother anyone could ever ask for." What a fitting tribute to any mother.)

Silent Moment

Before salvation we are quite selfish and for the most part unaware of the true importance and value of life. Life seems as a hardship, a series of difficulties with no promise of a future rest. I believe these points were a part of the butchers mentality, but in a moments time there was an awakening of feeling in this man's heart. When Christ came to me and "turned the light on" to the gift of salvation and my need it took only a moment for so much to change. His value never changed, but when God touched me with His love I loved and worshipped <sup>His</sup> greatness and glory. I no longer can continue crucifying the Saviour with my sins without great conviction and a hurt ~~with~~ <sup>because of</sup> a knowledge that I hurt the one who loved me first and the most.

The Touch of the Master's Hand

Twas battered and scarred, and the auctioneer
Thought it scarcely worth his while
To waste much time on the old violin,
But held it up with a smile.

"What am I bidden, good folks," he cried,
"Who will start bidding for me?
A dollar, a dollar" -then, "Two!" "Only two?
Two dollars, and who'll make it three?
Three dollars once; three dollars, twice;
Going for three-" But no,
From the room, far back, a gray-haired man
Came forward and picked up the bow;
Then, wiping the dust from the old violin,
And tightening the loose strings,
He played a melody pure and sweet
As sweet as a caroling angel sings.

The music ceased, and the auctioneer,
With a voice that was quiet and low,
Said, "What am I bidden for the old violin?"
And he held it up with the bow.
"A thousand dollars, and who'll make it two?
Two thousand! And who'll make it three?
Three thousand, once; three thousand, twice;
And going, and gone!" said he.
The people cheered, but some of them cried,
"We do not quite understand
What changed its worth?" Swift came the reply:
"The touch of the master's hand."

And many a man with life out of tune,
And battered and scattered with sin,
Is auctioned cheap to the thoughtless crowd,
Much like the old violin.
A "mess of pottage," a glass of wine;
A game - and he travels on.
He's "going" once, and "going" twice,
He's "going" and almost "gone."
But the Master comes, and the foolish crowd
Never can quite understand
The worth of a soul, and the change that's wrought
By the touch of the Master's hand.

"Silent Moment"

"The Touch of the Master's hand"

I'm so very grateful for the Lord's every touch.
I am reminded by this poem of the great change
He worked when he saved my soul. I am filled with a deep appreciation for the Lord's touch, and also a little fear that I don't want to ever be beyond his reach. In reading this poem
I am forever grateful for the Lord's every touch.

"Lord, keep me as the apple of thine eye!"

Let Me Tell You What Evolution Says...

A long time ago, don't know when and don't know where, because there wasn't any where and there wasn't any time. But, a long time ago there was nothing and It was no where that makes sense. Nothing can be no where. Nothing doesn't have to have somewhere to be, because it is nothing, and nothing can be no where. A Long time ago there was nothing no where, a long time ago when there wasn't a Anywhere. And one day this nothing all got together and decided to be something. Now something can't be nowhere, so nowhere is now somewhere, because you see it has to have somewhere to be something. Because nothing can be nowhere, but something can't be nowhere, it has to be somewhere. So now nowhere is somewhere and now nothing is something and this is a long time ago when there wasn't anywhere anyway.

And now this nothing that has become something is somewhere a long time ago when there wasn't anywhere and it got to going round and round real fast and a chunk of something flew off of something which was formally nothing and is now something and when it cooled, it is the earth you live on and that's really something. And they don't know where the sunshine came from but you can't live without it so that's handy and they don't know where the water came from, but you've got to have it and you can't live without it so that's handy. And so there was water and sunshine and wind and the wind blew and the sun shone and the water rippled and the wind blew and the sun shone and the water rippled and the wind blew and the sun shone and the water rippled and that went on and on and nobody knows how long cause there was nobody here anyway.

And then one day a glob of jelly (protoplasm - amoeba) came floating up out of the water and it landed on the shore. Now most jelly would have gone right back in the next wave but not this one, it was a real sticker and it stuck right there for over four million years. For four million years doing nothing one day it began to wiggle, I don't blame it after four million years, I'd do something too. Now it began to wiggle and squiggle and giggle and then it came alive and then it died and the sands of time buried it, and it came alive and then it died and the sands of time buried it and it came alive and it died and it lived and it died and it lived and now you're not going to believe just what I'm going to tell you, but now, he teaches over there at the university. Don't get mad at me I didn't say it. Evolution said it!

THINGS THAT JESUS DID

We must always remember that He did many more things than those told of Him. For instance in the Gospel according to John we read, "Jesus wept." Nowhere do we read, "Jesus smiled." Yet can you imagine Him surrounded by little children and not smiling at them? He, who was always talking about joy? Of course he smiled. As other things.

1. Did Jesus ever earn His living by manual labor? Yes
2. Did Jesus ever read aloud? Yes
3. Jesus was, as one of our hymns says, a "friend of little children," when parents brought their children to Him, what did he do? He too took them in His arms & blessed them.
4. Was Jesus ever sick? Not mentioned in Scripture that he was
5. Jesus was once asked if it was lawful to pay tribute to Caesar. Did He Himself ever pay taxes? Yes.
6. Did Jesus ever write anything? Yes.
7. Did Jesus ever warn people of dangers and evils that lay ahead? Yes.
8. Did Jesus ever sing? Yes.
9. Did Jesus ever prepare a meal? Yes.
10. Jesus of course did countless things that we cannot do.
Yet Peter once condensed His life into four words that offer a not impossible program for every one of us. What did Peter say? Went about doing good

THINGS JESUS SAID: RECORDED BY MATTHEW

Since these were words spoken by Jesus, they are among the most famous words ever spoken by any one. Can you complete the quotations?

1. "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But ..." lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves don't break through nor steal.
2. "Judge not..." that ye be not judged
3. "Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes..." of thorns, or figs of thistles"
4. "But when thou doest alms, ..." (That is, when you do any good things) "let not thy left hand..." know what thy right hand doeth.
5. "And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren,..." ye have done it unto me.

6. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day..." is the evil thereof

7. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous,..." but sinners to repentance

8. "For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world,..." and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

9. "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but..." my words shall never pass away

10. "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do..."
do ye even so them: for this is the law and the prophets

THINGS JESUS SAID: RECORDED BY MARK

One of the things Mark tells us about Jesus' teaching is (Mark 12:27) that "the common people heard Him gladly." Can you continue the following quotations?

Give the "sence": it is not always necessary to give the exact wording.

1. And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and ..." not man for the sabbath.

2. "And if a house be divided against itself, ..." that house cannot stand

3. "But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but..." in his own country, and amongst his own kin, and in his own house

4. "And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him..." deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me

5. "And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first,..."
he shall be last of all, and servant of all

6. "But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for..." of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

7. "For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but..." to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

8. "For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but..."
me ye have not always.

9. "Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but..."
the flesh is weak.

10. "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world,..."
and preach the Gospel to every creature.

THINGS JESUS SAID: RECORDED BY LUKE

Continue, if you can, the quotations.

1. "And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone,..."
but by every word of God.

"Evolution"

I smile at this paper because it shows how utterly foolish evolution is. They claim to be so wise, and, yet, they are really simple minded. At the same time, I pity the men and women we have fallen into this deception of the devil. It makes me hate Satan and all his works all the more.

HE IS

He is the First and Last, the Beginning and the End!
He is the keeper of Creation and the Creator of all!
He is the Architect of the universe and The Manager of all times.

He always was, He always is, and He always will be...
Unmoved, Unchanged, Undefeated, and never Undone!

He was bruised and brought healing!

He was pierced and eased pain!

He was persecuted and brought freedom!

He was dead and brought life!

He is risen and brings power!

He reigns and brings Peace!

The world can't understand him,

The armies can't defeat Him,

The schools can't explain Him, and a.. The leaders can't ignore Him.

Herod couldn't kill Him,

The Pharisees couldn't confuse Him, and

The people couldn't hold Him!

Nero couldn't crush Him,

Hitler couldn't silence Him,

The New Age can't replace Him, and Donahue can't explain Him away!

He is light, love, longevity, and Lord.

He is goodness, Kindness, Gentleness, and God.

He is Holy, Righteous, mighty, powerful, and pure.

His ways are right,

His word is eternal,

His will is unchanging, and

His mind is on me.

He is my Redeemer,

He is my Savior,

He is my guide, and

He is my peace!

He is my Joy,

He is my comfort,
He is my Lord, and
He rules my life!
I serve Him because His bond is love,
His burden is light, and
His goal for me is abundant life.
I follow Him because He is the wisdom of the wise,
The power of the powerful,
The ancient of days, the ruler of rulers,
The leader of leaders, the overseer of the overcomers,
and
The sovereign Lord of all that was and is and is to come.
And if that seems impressive to you, try this for size.
His goal is a relationship with ME!
He will never leave me,
Never forsake me,
Never mislead me,
Never forget me,
Never overlook me, and
Ever cancel my appointment in His appointment book!
When I fall, He lifts me up!
When I fail, He forgives!
When I am weak, He is strong!
When I am lost, He is the way!
When I am afraid, He is my courage!
When I stumble, He steadies me!
When I am hurt, He heals me!
When I am broken, He mends me!
When I am blind, He leads me!
When I am hungry, He feeds me!
When I face trials, He is with me!
When I face persecution, He shields me!
When I face problems, He comforts me!
When I face loss, He provides for me!
When I face Death, He carries me Home!
He is everything for everybody, everywhere,
Every time, and every way.
He is God, He is faithful.

I am His, and He is mine!
My Father in heaven can whip the father of this world.
So, if you're wondering why I feel so secure, understand this...

He said it and that settles it.
God is in control, I am on His side, and
That means all is well with my soul.
Everyday is a blessing for GOD Is!

I love the Lord and thank Him for all that he does in my life,
therefore, I am passing this on. Yes I do love Jesus.
He is my source of existence and my Savior. He keeps me functioning each and everyday. Without Him, I will be nothing.
Without Him, I am nothing but with Him I can do all things.

Silent Moment

"He Is"

"He is my everything, He is my all."
I am grateful beyond words for what the Lord Jesus means to me. I feel safe and sure because He leads me on. I am confident in this one thing: He is able!

The Candy Cane Story

A candy maker in Indiana wanted to make a candy that would be a witness, so he created the Christmas candy cane.

He incorporated several symbols for the birth, ministry, and death of Jesus Christ.

He began with a stick of pure white hard candy. White symbolizes the virgin birth and the sinless nature of Jesus. The hard candy symbolizes the solid rock - the foundation of the church and firmness of God's promises.

The candy maker made the candy in the form of the letter "J" to represent the name of Jesus. It also represents the staff with which the Good Shepherd reaches down to the ditches of the world to lift out the fallen lambs who, like all sheep, have gone astray.

Thinking that the candy was somewhat plain, the candy maker stained it with red stripes. The candy maker used three small stripes to represent the scourging Jesus received by which we were healed. The large red stripe was for the blood shed by Christ on the cross.

Since that time, however, the candy has become known as the candy cane. The story of its creation has been lost to tradition and mass production, and it is now available in many different colors, shapes, and sizes.

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16

THE TWELVE DAYS OF CHRISTMAS

The secret behind the song

In the sixteen century, England proclaimed an official church state, and any other religious teaching was strictly forbidden. So for the next three centuries, those who refused to join the state church developed creative ways to teach their children their beliefs. One popular method was to use lyric and song. Below you discover the secret Christian symbols concealed in the familiar carol "The Twelve Days of Christmas". This cheerful song about a generous benefactor who loved to give, could be freely sung without ever using God's name, because my true love in the song refers to God. So come along and discover for yourself how things are not always as they seem. See how this old familiar carol overflows with rich spiritual significance that tells us why we celebrate the birth of the only Savior, Jesus. The next time you sing this song notice how even the repetitive pattern represents a special meaning--as the verses repeat over and over. So God's ongoing gifts and blessing continue to flow.

1. A PARTRIDGE IN A PEAR TREE-----The Partridge was known to fight to the death to defend their young (Jesus is the partridge ) a pear tree represents the cross. Jesus died upon the cross to save His young.
2. TWO TURTLE DOVES----Joseph and Mary, forty days after the birth of Jesus, went to the temple to sacrifice two turtle doves as required by the law of the Old Testament. This reminds us that Jesus is the only sacrifice for our sins that can get a person into heaven. (The New Testament.)
3. THREE FRENCH HENS—These were valuable poultry that only the rich could afford. These three French hens symbolize the three valuable gifts given to Jesus by the wise men. Gold (a gift for a King), frankincense (something burned to God), myrrh (something used for burials). Symbolized that the baby Jesus is a King, prayer will saturate his life, and suffering will be His destiny upon this earth.
4. FOUR CALLING BIRDS—These birds represent the four gospels, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. These four Gospels call and proclaim all people to give their life to and live for the only True Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
5. FIVE GOLDEN RINGS...These represent something very valuable they symbolize the first five books in the Old Testament. (Also known as the Torah (Law). Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy.
6. SIX GEESSE A-LAYING...Eggs represent something new is about to come to life. These remind us of the six days that God used for a new creation.
7. SEVEN SWANS A-SWIMMING...Beautiful swans come from ugly ducklings.

These swans represent the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit that helps us to grow and mature into Beautiful Christians. Romans 12:6-8 6: Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7: Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching;

8: Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

8. EIGHT MAIDS A-MILKING...Milk nourishes a child and helps them to strengthen and grow. These symbolize the eight teaching of Jesus in the beatitudes ( Blessed are the poor in spirit, those who mourn, the meek, who hunger and thirst for righteousness are merciful, pure in heart, the peacemakers, those who are persecuted because of Jesus.
9. NINE LADIES DANCING...The nine ladies are dancing for joy due to the joyful life they are living. These symbolize the nine fruits of the Spirit, Love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentlemen and temperance. The fruit of the spirit will produce joy in our life if they are a reality to our soul.
10. TEN LORDS A-LEAPING...Lords were men with authority to rule over people and command obedience. These Lords represent the ten commandments of God that still are the absolute truth.
11. ELEVEN PIPERS PIPING...Pipers call Children to joyfully follow them. These stand for the eleven faithful disciples who were chosen and remained faithful To Jesus Christ (Judas not included) And they called us to follow their tune and joyfully follow the Lord Jesus.
12. TWELVE DRUMMERS DRUMMING... Drummers beat out loud and steady rhythm mor marchers to follow. This represents the twelve vital beliefs stated in the APOSTLE's creed for us to follow. Notice Jesus is the only way, not Buddha, (Buddhism) Mohammed (Islam) Karma, (new age)Mormonism, Jehovah witness, etc.

THE APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth,
I believe in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary
He suffered un Pontius Pilot, was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into Hell, the third day He rose from the dead.
He shall return to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Christian church.
The communion of the saints, the forgiveness of sins.
The resurrection of the body, and life everlasting,

THINGS THAT JESUS DID

Congratulations
from the

We must always remember that He did many more things than those told of Him.

For instance in the Gospel according to John we read, "Jesus wept." Nowhere do we read, "Jesus smiled." Yet can you imagine Him surrounded by little children and not smiling at them?

He, who was always talking about joy? Of course he smiled. As other things.

Master
Vicar
Teacher

1. Did Jesus ever earn His living by manual labor?

Yes. Mark 4 I think it is, he was called a "carpenter"

2. Did Jesus ever read aloud?

Yes.

3. Jesus was, as one of our hymns says, a "friend of little children," when parents brought their children to Him, what did he do?

Took them in His arms and blessed them

4. Was Jesus ever sick?

Not mentioned in Scripture that He was or wasn't.

5. Jesus was once asked if it was lawful to pay tribute to Caesar. Did He Himself ever pay taxes?

Yes.

6. Did Jesus ever write anything?

Yes. In the sand when the adulteress was brought to Him.

7. Did Jesus ever warn people of dangers and evils that lay ahead?

Yes.

8. Did Jesus ever sing?

Yes.

9. Did Jesus ever prepare a meal?

Yes. John 21.

10. Jesus of course did countless things that we cannot do.

Yet Peter once condensed His life into four words that offer a not impossible program for every one of us. What did Peter say? "Went about doing good"

THINGS JESUS SAID: RECORDED BY MATTHEW

Since these were words spoken by Jesus, they are among the most famous words ever spoken by any one. Can you complete the quotations?

1. "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But ..." lay up treasures in heaven where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt or thieves break through and steal.

2. "Judge not..." that ye be not judged. Matthew 7:1

5. "And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren,..." ye have done it unto Me.

6. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day..." is the evil thereof.

10. "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do..." ye even so to them for this is the law and the prophets.

THINGS JESUS SAID: RECORDED BY MARK

One of the things Mark tells us about Jesus' teaching is (Mark 12:27) that "the common people heard Him gladly." Can you continue the following quotations?

1 COR. 13:8 LOVE NEVER FAILS

New Year's Prayer -

The Gate of the Year

I said to the One who stood at the Gate of the New Year

"Give me a light that I may tread safely

Into the unknown." And he replied:

"Go out into the darkness and put your hand

Into the hand of God.

That shall be to you, better than light

And safer than a known way."

So I went forth, and found the hand of God and trod gladly into the night,

Then He lead me toward the hills and the breaking of the day.

May your hand be held by JESUS each day of this year so that you know that you are not on your own. And when you hold the hand of another may it be a source of strength for both of you.

Ps:65:11: Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

Tamar: Genesis 38:6-30

Tamar was the daughter-in-law of Judah. She was a childless widow, who was given to her brother-in-law after her husband's death. By this marriage, her offspring would continue the name and inheritance of the deceased. Such a union was later called a Leverite marriage (Deut 25:5-6).

Unfortunately, Tamar's brother-in-law refused to have proper intercourse with her. God killed him for this. Afterwards, Judah would not give Tamar to any of his other sons. So Tamar disguised herself as a harlot and seduced Judah. Through him, she became the mother of Perez.

Rahab: Joshua 2:1-24

Rahab was a harlot who lived in Jericho. She hid the spies of Joshua. Because of this, the Israelites spared her life when they conquered Jericho. She later became the wife of Salmon, and the mother of Boaz. Rahab's faith was later commended (Heb 11:30-31).

Ruth: Ruth 1:1-4:22

Ruth was a foreigner from the land of Moab. She was the widow of a Jew. Her mother-in-law, Naomi, also lived in Moab. Naomi journeyed to Israel after her family died. Ruth's devotion was extraordinary. She left her own country to follow Naomi. While in Israel, Ruth was married to Boaz, one of Naomi's relatives. Ruth later became the mother of Obed, the grandfather of David the King.

Bathsheba: 2 Samuel 11:1-27

Bathsheba was the wife of Uriah the Hittite, who was a soldier in the army of King David. She and David had an adulterous affair.

When David discovered Bathsheba was pregnant, he tried to cover it up by summoning Uriah home from war, hoping that Uriah would have intercourse with his wife. Uriah came home to Jerusalem, but refused to lay with Bathsheba as long as the armies of Israel were at war.

So, David sent Uriah back into battle, with orders that Uriah should be withdrawn from when the fighting became fierce. After Uriah was slain in this manner, David took Bathsheba as his own wife. God punished them for this by killing their first child.

Bathsheba later became the mother of Solomon.

Mary: Matthew 1:18-25, Luke 1:26-56

Mary was the mother of Jesus and the wife of Joseph. She was a virgin when Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit.

Joseph was betrothed to Mary when he discovered she was pregnant. He intended to put her away secretly because this was shameful. However, an angel told Joseph what had happened. So Joseph took Mary as his wife, and kept her as a virgin until she gave birth to Jesus.

During her pregnancy, Mary spent time with her relative Elizabeth, who was the mother of John the Baptist (Luke 1:39-56). Mary was not a perpetual virgin, as she later became the mother of other sons and daughters (Matthew 13:55-56).

Mary was a widow at the time of Jesus' death. While on the cross, Jesus committed her to the care of John, his apostle (John 19:25-27).

Topic: Jehoi'achin

succeeded his father Jehoiakin (B.C. 599) when only eight years of age, and reigned for one hundred days (2 Chr. 36:9). He is also called Jeconiah (Jer. 24:1; 27:20, etc.), and Coniah (22: 24; 37:1). He was succeeded by his uncle, Mattaniah = Zedekiah (q.v.). He was the last direct heir to the Jewish crown.

He was carried captive to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar, along with the flower of the nobility, all the leading men in Jerusalem, and a great body of the general population, some thirteen thousand in all (2 Kings 24: 12-16; Jer. 52:28). After an imprisonment of thirty-seven years (Jer. 52:31, 33), he was liberated by Evil-merodach, and permitted to occupy a place in the king's household and sit at his table, receiving "every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life" (52:32-34).

Two Genealogies of Jesus
Found in Matthew 1:1-17
Luke 3:23-38

The birth and death of Jesus Christ has attracted the gaze of the whole world. Every Christmas the world looks back tow thousand years to a manger In a small town of Bethlehem and gives recognize that the greatest personage in all the earth was born one glorious night. Yes even heaven declared the glory of God by sending angelic beings to proclaim an event that would change man's history and destiny forever.

Lk:2:10: And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

13: And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

Sing them over again to me wonderful words of life!

1. Who is this Jesus who is called the Christ?

He is indeed the God-man, the Creator of this universe, the judge of all the world, the Messiah, and who is the promised Messiah.

Col. 1:16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

17: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

He is either the biggest fraud and perjurer that this world has ever known or He is the Greatest personage of all History. I am inclined to go along with this last statement. He is God Himself and does not need anyone or anything to prove His Omnipotent power, Omniscient knowledge or Omnipresence everywhere. Must crown him Lord of all today in our hearts and King of Kings.

1John 3:5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.
Heb:2:16: For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

2. Why did Christ come to earth in a human body? Incarnation

Jesus came to tell forth God. Thank You God for this great eternal plan you stepped out of the Holy scrip and step into our heart with those wounded feet and set up a kingdom which can not be moved. He was and is the expressed Image of God's love. Prior to the Incarnation, Men were basically afraid of Jehovah-God. Notice when God spoke to Moses in the mount there was fearful lightening and thundering and all where filled with great fear. Al the people realized that no man could see God and live. Christ came and dwelt among men to pave a highway with His holy Blood for all who would receive and believe His message of Hope.

9: Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10: Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11: Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12: Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

Illustration: A prince wanted to go among his subjects and see what they needed. He knew that if He went in his princely robes, they would fear Him, so he dressed as they did. He spoke their language and instead of fearing Him, as a King and ruler, they loved Him as a friend. What a friend we have in Jesus. One day he returned to His palace and putting His royal robes back on His spotless body, He executed the judgment and authority which were His.

Matt. 28:18 : And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

3. How do we account for these two genealogies of our Lord, and Saviour?

Matthew 1:1-17

We have a record of two genealogies, one in Matthew and one in Luke. We find the names given are the same from Abraham to David but from David to Christ, they are different. At first you may say, I am not interested in a long list of names but if your name was that list, you would suddenly become interested in it. .

Now there are things of great interest in genealogies, specially in the genealogy of Jesus Christ. God planned these two genealogies of Jesus and it was no accident that Matthew and Luke wrote them. They are not dry and they are not contradictory. They are vital to the record that God gave of his Son.

In Luke the third chapter, we see Jesus' genealogy traced through his mother, Mary. She was the daughter Heili, through Nathan the Son of David. The line goes back to Adam, This was the Genealogy of one that was promised to Adam Gen. 3:15, "Seed of the Woman" This is the redeemer who was to go to the throne of David.

In Matthew, chapter one, the line is traced through Joseph," the supposed father of Jesus" He was the legal father, through Solomon, the son of David. This record goes back to Abraham. It is the legal genealogy that gives Jesus the right to the throne of David.

In Luke " Christ is presented as the "seed of the woman" Gal. 4:4

In Matthew Christ is presented as the Son of David.

Jesus was the son of man but not the son of Joseph. " as was supposed" he could neither be King or Savior.

Sea of Galilee

Since the beginning of time, the Sea of Galilee has provided its fishermen with a plentiful source of sustenance. Some of the apostles were fishermen: "As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men."

At once they left their nets and followed him. Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him" [Matthew 4:18-22]. The most famous fish of the 23 family varieties found in the Galilee is now commonly named for Simon Peter — "the St. Peter's fish." The fish is actually the "telapia" a so called "mouth breeder." This fish protects its young by scooping them into her mouth in times of peril. Some have suggested that this fish may have been the type that scooped the shekel tax in the story of the fish with the coin. (Mt.17:24 -27)

Biblical figures lived and worked on the shores of the Sea of Galilee. Two millennia ago Jesus lived, sojourned, and preached on the shores of the Sea of Galilee and in its neighboring towns, making Capernaum the center of his ministry. Mary Magdalene was from Migdal, and three disciples were born in Bethsaida. One city survives today, the city of Tiberias was built during Jesus' lifetime, to honor the Roman Caesar Tiberius.

Shaped like a harp, some eight miles across (E-W) and 13 miles (N-S), the Sea of Galilee (in Hebrew Kinneret) is the most important body of fresh water in the land of Israel. The Kinneret provides the modern State with nearly one third of its water needs. It is Israel's only sweet-water lake, and averages over 180-200 day at center. There are 23 family varieties of fish in the Sea.

Seen from almost any vantage point the Sea of Galilee is a delight. Sometimes it shimmers in the sunlight, giving the waters a beautiful glow. At others it waxes cloudy — enigmatic and mysterious. The sight of the Sea of Galilee by ancients who crossed parched deserts in the region must have moved the onlooker to tears.

LIFE OF CHRIST
CIRCUMCISION
Genesis 17:12 (1450B. C. )

And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed

a. Of all the examples of scripture considered thus far, this has been one of the more remarkable verses. In this scripture, God tells Abraham that the eighth day is when circumcision is to be performed. This Is an amazing statement especially when one considers the following:

1. Medical doctors have found during the last half century that circumcision is valuable health practice. It reduces the occurrence of penile cancer in males and cancer of the cervix in their wives. Medical science has confirmed, after 4000 years of study, that the best method of preventing these two forms of cancer is circumcision.

2. Medical Science has recently discovered that the newborn infant is susceptible to bleeding between the second and fifth day of life. Extensive hemorrhaging could occur at this time and could cause damage to the brain and internal organs or even death.

3. The Ability to clot the blood is dependent on a variety of chemical factors present in the blood. Let us consider two of these factors, Vitamin K and Prothrombin.

a. Vitamin K is manufactured in the human intestinal tract by bacteria. In the newborn infant, this does not take place until the fifth to the seventh day when the bacterium begins to develop in sufficient numbers. Therefore, the first day that one knows for sure that it is safe to perform circumcision is the eighth day. Who knew about bacteria and their ability to make Vitamin K at this time?

b. Pro thrombin is another important element necessary for the proper clotting of the blood. It has been shown that in the blood stream of the newborn infant the amount of prothrombin is less than normal. The concentration of prothrombin is below normal and then skyrockets to a level of 10% above normal on the eighth day. It then levels off to normal values after the eighth day.

c. In light of the above scientific facts the best day to perform a circumcision is the eighth day just as described in this passage of scripture. Certainly this is evidence to be considered for Biblical inerrancy.

Messianic Prophecies

Fulfilled by Jesus Christ

"What is a prophecy?"

A prophecy is the future told in advance by God through a prophet.

Isaiah 48:2-5 [3] I foretold the former things long ago, my mouth announced them and I made them known; then suddenly I acted, and they came to pass. [4] For I knew how stubborn you were; the sinews of your neck were iron, your forehead was bronze. [5] Therefore I told you these things long ago; before they happened I announced them to you so that you could not say, 'My idols did them; my wooden image and metal god ordained them.'

"Isn't 'fulfilled prophecy' just a guess or luck or coincidence?"

2 Peter 1:19-21 [19] And we have the word of the prophets made more certain, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. [20] Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. [21] For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

"Does the Old Testament contain any prophecies about the Messiah?"

Yes! The Old Testament contains about FOUR HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE prophecies about the Messiah. Here is a small sample (in roughly chronological order):

GOD WOULD COME TO EARTH

BE BORN AS A HUMAN MALE

Isaiah 9:6-7 [6] For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. [7] Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. ... 700 B.C.

Mark 1:1 The beginning of the gospel about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

John 1:1-3, 14 [1] In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. [2] He was with God in the beginning. [3] Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. [14] The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

BORN OF A VIRGIN

Isaiah 7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel. 700 B.C.

Matthew 1:20-23 [20] But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. [21] She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." [22] All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: [23] "The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel" --which means, "God with us."

FROM THE HOUSE OF JUDAH

Isaiah 37:31 Once more a remnant of the house of Judah will take root below and bear fruit above. 700 B.C.

Matthew 1:1-2, 16 [1] A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son [descendant] of David, the son of Abraham: [2] Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers, [16] and [a later] Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

FROM THE ROOT AND STUMP OF JESSE

Isaiah 11:10 In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples; the nations will rally to him, and his place of rest will be glorious. 700 B.C.

Isaiah 11:1-5 [1] A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from his roots a Branch will bear fruit. [2] The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him-- the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of power, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD-- [3] and he will delight in the fear of the LORD. He will not judge by what he sees with his eyes, or decide by what he hears with his ears; [4] but with righteousness he will judge the needy, with justice he will give decisions for the poor of the earth. He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked. [5] Righteousness will be his belt and faithfulness the sash around his waist. 700 B.C.

Romans 15:12 And again, Isaiah says, "The Root of Jesse will spring up, one who will arise to rule over the nations; the Gentiles will hope in him."

Matthew 1:1-2a, 5-6, 16 [1] A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son of David, the son of Abraham: [2] Abraham was the father of Isaac, ... [5] ... Obed the father of Jesse, [6] and Jesse the father of King David. [16] and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

FROM THE HOUSE OF DAVID

Isaiah 16:5 In love a throne will be established; in faithfulness a man will sit on it--one from the house of David--one who in judging seeks justice and speeds the cause of righteousness. 700 B.C.

Matthew 1:1-2A, 6, 16 [1] A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son of David, the son of Abraham: [2] Abraham was the father of Isaac, ... [6] and Jesse the father of King David. [16] and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

BORN IN BETHLEHEM EPHRATHAH

Micah 5:2 But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel, whose origins are from of old, from ancient times. 700 B.C.

Matthew 2:1 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem

Over the years there have been a number of "Bethlehems" in Israel. At the time of Jesus' birth, Bethlehem Ephrathah, referred to in Matthew as "Bethlehem in Judea", was a village about five miles south of Jerusalem, and there also was a town named Bethlehem about seven miles northwest of Nazareth. (Per footnote Matthew 2:1 of the Zondervan NIV Study Bible, 10th Anniversary Edition, (c) 1995)

BE FROM NAZARETH OF GALILEE

Isaiah 9:1-2 [1] Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those who were in distress. In the past he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the future he will honor Galilee of the Gentiles, by the way of the sea, along the Jordan -- [2] The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned. 700 B.C.

Matthew 2:22-23 [22] But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Having been warned in a dream, he withdrew to the district of Galilee, [23] and he went and lived in a town called Nazareth. So was fulfilled what was said through the prophets: "He will be called a Nazarene."

Matthew 4:13-16 [13] Leaving Nazareth, he [Jesus] went and lived in Capernaum, which was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali-- [14] to fulfill what was said through the prophet Isaiah: [15] "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, along the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles -- [16] the people living in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned."

HIS BIRTH WOULD TRIGGER A MASSACRE OF INFANT BOYS

Jeremiah 31:15 This is what the LORD says: "A voice is heard in Ramah, mourning and great weeping, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because her children are no more." 625 B.C.

Matthew 2:16-18 [16] When Herod realized that he had been outwitted by the Magi, he was furious, and he gave orders to kill all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity who were two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had learned from the Magi. [17] Then what was said through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled: [18] "A voice is heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more."

An interesting side note: most people think that Herod killed thousands of babies. However, Bethlehem was "in the boondocks." The chances are that less than thirty babies were killed.

COME OUT OF EGYPT

Hosea 11:1 When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son. 725 B.C.

Matthew 2:14-15 [14] So he got up, took the child and his mother during the night and left for Egypt, [15] where he stayed until the death of Herod. And so was fulfilled what the Lord had said through the prophet: "Out of Egypt I called my son."

MISSION WOULD INCLUDE THE GENTILES

Isaiah 49:6 he [the Lord] says: "It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back those of Israel I have kept. I will also make you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring my salvation to the ends of the earth." 700 B.C.

Isaiah 42:1-4, 6 [1] "Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit on him and he will bring justice to the nations. [2] He will not shout or cry out, or raise his voice in the streets. [3] A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out. In faithfulness he will bring forth justice; [4] he will not falter or be discouraged till he establishes justice on earth. In his law the islands will put their hope." [6] "I, the LORD, have called you in righteousness; I will take hold of your hand. I will keep you and will make you to be a covenant for the people and a light for the Gentiles, 700 B.C.

Matthew 12:14-21 [14] But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus. [15] Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from that place. Many followed him, and he healed all their sick, [16] warning them not to tell who he was. [17] This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah: [18] "Here is my servant whom I have chosen, the one I love, in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit on him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations. [19] He will not quarrel or cry out; no one will hear his voice in the streets. [20] A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out, till he leads justice to victory. [21] In his name the nations will put their hope."

Note that in Biblical usage the Gentiles are often referred to as "the nations."

MINISTRY WOULD INCLUDE MIRACULOUS HEALINGS

Isaiah 29:18 In that day the deaf will hear the words of the scroll, and out of gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind will see. 700 B.C.

Isaiah 35:5-6a [5] Then will the eyes of the blind be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped. [6a] Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the mute tongue shout for joy. 700 B.C.

Luke 7:20-22 [20] When the men came to Jesus, they said, "John the Baptist sent us to you to ask, 'Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect someone else?' " [21] At that very time Jesus cured many who had diseases, sicknesses and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind. [22] So he replied to the messengers, "Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor."

MINISTRY WOULD DELIVER SPIRITUAL CAPTIVES

Isaiah 61:1-2 [1] The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, [2] to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, 700 B.C.

Luke 4:16-21 [16] He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read. [17] The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written: [18] "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, [19] to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." [20] Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him, [21] and he began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

Not too shabby, considering it was His first sermon!

DESPISED AND REJECTED BY MEN

Isaiah 53:3 He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not. 700 B.C.

The Crucifixion narratives in all four Gospels show this prophecy fulfilled.

HATED WITHOUT CAUSE

Psalms 69:4 Those who hate me without reason outnumber the hairs of my head; many are my enemies without cause, those who seek to destroy me. I am forced to restore what I did not steal. 1000 B.C.

Isaiah 49:7 This is what the LORD says-- the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel-- to him who was despised and abhorred by the nation, to the servant of rulers: "Kings will see you and rise up, princes will see and bow down, because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you." 700 B.C.

John 7:48-49 "Has any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in him? [49] No! But this mob that knows nothing of the law--there is a curse on them."

John 15:24-25 [24] If I had not done among them what no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have seen these miracles, and yet they have hated both me and my Father. [25] But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law: 'They hated me without reason.'

REJECTED BY RULERS

Psalms 118:22 The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone [cornerstone of a building]; [23] the LORD has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes. before 400 B.C.

Matthew 21:42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:" 'The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone; the Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes' ?

John 7:48-49 Has any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in him? [49] No! But this mob that knows nothing of the law--there is a curse on them.

REJECTED BY HIS OWN BROTHERS

Psalms 69:8 I am a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my own mother's sons 1000 B.C.

(Side note: this pretty much kills the Catholic Church's claim that when the Gospels name Jesus' brothers they are talking about His cousins.)

Mark 3:20-21 [20] Then Jesus entered a house, and again a crowd gathered, so that he and his disciples were not even able to eat. [21] When his family heard about this, they went to take charge of him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."

John 7:1-5 [1] After this, Jesus went around in Galilee, purposely staying away from Judea because the Jews there were waiting to take his life. [2] But when the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near, [3] Jesus' brothers said to him, "You ought to leave here and go to Judea, so that your disciples may see the miracles you do. [4] No one who wants to become a public figure acts in secret. Since you are doing these things, show yourself to the world." [5] For even his own brothers did not believe in him.

BETRAYED FOR 30 PIECES OF SILVER

Zechariah 11:12 I told them, "If you think it best, give me my pay; but if not, keep it." So they paid me thirty pieces of silver. 500 B.C.

Matthew 26:14-15 [14] Then one of the Twelve--the one called Judas Iscariot--went to the chief priests [15] and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?" So they counted out for him thirty silver coins.

SILVER RETURNED

SILVER USED TO BUY POTTER'S FIELD

Zechariah 11:12-13 [12] I told them, "If you think it best, give me my pay; but if not, keep it." So they paid me thirty pieces of silver. [13] And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter"--the handsome price at which they priced me! So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD to the potter. 500 B.C.

*KJV
"Repented"*
Matthew 27:3-10 [3] When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and the elders. [4] "I have sinned," he said, "for I have betrayed innocent blood." "What is that to us?" they replied. "That's your responsibility." [5] So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself. [6] The chief priests picked up the coins and said, "It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money." [7] So they decided to use the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners. [8] That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day. [9] Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "They took the thirty silver coins, the price set on him by the people of Israel, [10] and they used them to buy the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me."

DISCIPLES WOULD SCATTER

Zechariah 13:7 "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is close to me!" declares the LORD Almighty. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered, and I will turn my hand against the little ones." 500 B.C.

Matthew 26:31 Then Jesus told them, "This very night you will all fall away on account of me, for it is written: " I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered."

Matthew 27:48 Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar, put it on a stick, and offered it to Jesus to drink.

CRUSHED FOR OUR INIQUITIES

Isaiah 53:5-6 [5] But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed. [6] We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. 700 B.C.

Romans 4: 25 He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

1 Corinthians 15:3 (NAB*) I handed on to you first of all what I myself received, that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures

*NAB=New American Bible (not NASB=New American Standard Bible)

SUFFERED FOR THE SINS OF OTHERS

Psalm 69:4 Those who hate me without reason outnumber the hairs of my head; many are my enemies without cause, those who seek to destroy me. I am forced to restore what I did not steal. 1000 B.C.

Isaiah 53:5-6 [5] But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed. [6] We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. 700 B.C.

Romans 4: 25 He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

Zechariah 12:10 And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and supplication. They will look on me, the one they have pierced, and they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only child, and grieve bitterly for him as one grieves for a firstborn son. 500 B.C.

John 19:33-34; 36-37 [33] But when they came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. [34] Instead, one of the soldiers pierced Jesus' side with a spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water. [36] These things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled: "Not one of his bones will be broken," [37] and, as another scripture says, "They will look on the one they have pierced."

NO BONES BROKEN

Psalm 22:17 I can count all my bones; people stare and gloat over me. 1000 B.C.

Psalm 34:20 he protects all his bones, not one of them will be broken. 1000 B.C.

John 19:33; 36a [33] But when they came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. [36a] These things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled: "Not one of his bones will be broken,"

It is important to realize that crucifixion victims' legs normally were broken. And yet, a thousand years before the Crucifixion of Jesus, King David foretold that the Messiah would die in an unusual way. See Forensic Pathology Report on Jesus.

SOLDIERS GAMBLE FOR HIS CLOTHES

Psalm 22:18 They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing. 1000 B.C.

Matthew 27:35 When they had crucified him, they divided up his clothes by casting lots.

BRUTALLY KILLED

Isaiah 53:8 By oppression and judgment he was taken away. And who can speak of his descendants? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was stricken. 700 B.C.

See all four Gospels.

ASSIGNED A GRAVE WITH THE WICKED

Isaiah 53:9 He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death 700 B.C.

Crucifixion was normally reserved for criminals and people the Romans wanted to "make an example of". As a crucifixion victim, Jesus would have been assigned a grave (if any) with such people.

BURIED IN A RICH MAN'S TOMB

Isaiah 53:9 He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death ... 700 B.C.

Matthew 27:57,59-60 [57] As evening approached, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. [59] Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, [60] and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.

THE MESSIAH WOULD RETURN FROM THE DEAD

Isaiah 53:8, 11 [8] By oppression and judgment he was taken away. And who can speak of his descendants? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was stricken. [11] After the suffering of his soul, he will see the light of life and be satisfied; by his knowledge my righteous servant will justify many, and he will bear their iniquities. 700 B.C.

Matthew 28:2, 5-7, 9 [2] There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. [5] The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. [6] He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. [7] Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you." [9] Suddenly Jesus met them. "Greetings," he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him.

FAMILIAR WITH SUFFERING

Isaiah 53:3 He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not. 700 B.C.

The Crucifixion of Jesus was not an anomaly in how people treated Him:

- He was "run out of town" at several places.

Mark 5:14-17 [14] Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened. [15] When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons, sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. [16] Those who had seen it told the people what had happened to the demon- possessed man--and told about the pigs as well. [17] Then the people began to plead with Jesus to leave their region.

- People tried to stone Him.

John 10:31-33 [31] Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him, [32] but Jesus said to them, "I have shown you many great miracles from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?" [33] "We are not stoning you for any of these," replied the Jews, "but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God."

- Some Jewish leaders conspired to kill Him.

John 7:1 After this, Jesus went around in Galilee, purposely staying away from Judea because the Jews there were waiting to take his life.

Matthew 12:14 But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.

- His own family thought He was crazy.

Mark 3:20-21 [20] Then Jesus entered a house, and again a crowd gathered, so that he and his disciples were not even able to eat. [21] When his family heard about this, they went to take charge of him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."

- His brothers told Him to go to a festival, expecting He would be killed.

John 7:1-3, 5 [1] After this, Jesus went around in Galilee, purposely staying away from Judea because the Jews there were waiting to take his life. [2] But when the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near, [3] Jesus' brothers said to him, "You ought to leave here and go to Judea, so that your disciples may see the miracles you do." [5] For even his own brothers did not believe in him.

- His disciples abandoned Him.

- He was crucified.

"You are taking a bunch of things out of context -- two sentences here, half a sentence there ..."

It is true that taking a few sentences here and part of a sentence there would not prove anything. But there are OVER FOUR HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE references that are considered Messianic prophecies. Taken as a group it becomes obvious they aren't just coincidences.

Also, some of the references, particularly Isaiah 11 and Isaiah 53 clearly are referring to the (at that time) coming Messiah.

Furthermore, in a number of instances, the New Testament authors expressly state "This was to fulfill the prophecy '<whatever>'."

"Aren't these really mainly self-fulfilling prophecies?"

Unless He was operating under the authority of God, how could Jesus arrange to fulfill any of the following Messianic prophecies?

- Born in Bethlehem
- Be from Nazareth
- Come out of Egypt (as a young child)
- Descended from Judah
- Descended from Jesse
- Descended from David
- No bones broken
- Betrayed by a friend
- Betrayed for exactly 30 pieces of silver
- 30 pieces of silver returned
- 30 pieces used to buy the potter's field
- Born of a virgin
- Perform miracles
- RESURRECTION!!!

1 The Gospel of Jesus Christ

"Gospel" means "Good News"

"Gospel" means "Good News". A gospel presents the Good News that Jesus Christ has made salvation available to all people, not just Jews.

The Gospel According to Isaiah

700 B.C.

Isaiah 7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel.

Immanuel means "God with us." It is important to remember that Israelite names were descriptive phrases. It was not unusual for a person to have several names, e.g. (1) Saul and Paul, (2) Peter, Simon and Cephas.

Isaiah 9:6-7 [NIV] [6] For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. [New American Bible: upon his shoulder dominion rests] And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. [7] Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

Isaiah 11:2-5 [2] The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him-- the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of power, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD-- [3] and he will delight in the fear of the LORD. He will not judge by what he sees with his eyes, or decide by what he hears with his ears; [4] but with righteousness he will judge the needy, with justice he will give decisions for the poor of the earth. He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked. [5] Righteousness will be his belt and faithfulness the sash around his waist.

Isaiah 52:13 through 53:12 is called the "suffering servant" passage.

Isaiah 52:13-15 [13] See, my servant will act wisely; he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted. [14] Just as there were many who were appalled at him -- his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man and his form marred beyond human likeness -- [15] so will he sprinkle many nations, and kings will shut their mouths because of him. For what they were not told, they will see, and what they have not heard, they will understand.

Isaiah 53:1-12 [1] Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? [2] He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. [3] He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not. [4] Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted. [5] But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed. [6] We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. [7] He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. [8] By oppression and judgment he was taken away. And who can speak of his descendants? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was stricken. [9] He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, though he had done no violence, nor was any deceit in his mouth. [10] Yet it was the LORD's will to crush him and cause him to suffer, and though the LORD makes his life a guilt offering, he will see his offspring and prolong his days, and the will of the LORD will prosper in his hand. [11] After the suffering of his soul, he will see the light of life and be satisfied; by his knowledge my righteous servant will justify many, and he will bear their iniquities. [12] Therefore I will give him a portion among the great, and he will divide the spoils with the strong, because he poured out his life unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors. For he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Isaiah 61:1-2 [1] The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, [2] to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn

Friend, that is the gospel, just as clear and certain as Matthew, Mark, Luke and John!

NONE OF HIS BONES WERE BROKEN.

Psalms 22:17 I can count all my bones; people stare and gloat over me. 1000 B.C.

- Psalms 34:20 he protects all his bones, not one of them will be broken. 1000 B.C. (cf. John 19:33; 36a)

It is important to realize that crucifixion victims' legs normally were broken. And yet, a thousand years before the Crucifixion of Jesus, King David foretold that the Messiah would die in an unusual way. See the Additional References for details.

SOLDIERS GAMBLER FOR HIS CLOTHES.

Psalms 22:18 They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing. 1000 B.C. (cf. Matthew 27:35)

HE WAS BRUTALLY KILLED.

Isaiah 53:8 By oppression and judgment he was taken away. And who can speak of his descendants? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was stricken. 700 B.C. (See all four Gospels)

HE WAS ASSIGNED A GRAVE WITH THE WICKED . . .

Isaiah 53:9 He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death 700 B.C. (Crucifixion was normally reserved for criminals and people the Romans wanted to "make an example of". As a crucifixion victim, Jesus would have been assigned a grave (if any) with such people.)

BUT HE WAS BURIED IN A RICH MAN'S TOMB.

Isaiah 53:9 He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death ... 700 B.C. (cf. Matthew 27:57,59-60)

HE CAME BACK FROM THE DEAD.

Isaiah 53:8, 11 [8] By oppression and judgment he was taken away. And who can speak of his descendants? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was stricken. [11] After the suffering of his soul, he will see the light of life and be satisfied; by his knowledge my righteous servant will justify many, and he will bear their iniquities. 700 B.C. (cf. Matthew 28:2, 5-7, 9)

??? WHY DID HE DO THIS ???

Romans 5:8 But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

John 3:16-18 [16] For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. [17] For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. [18] Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.

Acts 4:12 Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved.

Romans 10:9 If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, YOU WILL BE SAVED.

I asked God

I asked God to Take away my habit. God said, No.
It is not for me to take away, but for you to give it up.

I asked God to make me a millionaire

God said, No.

As your day so shall your needs be met

I asked God to grant me patience.

God said, No.

Patience is a byproduct of tribulations;

it isn't granted, it is learned.

I asked God to give me happiness.

God said, No.

I give you blessings; Happiness is up to you.

I asked God to spare me pain.

God said, No.

Suffering draws you apart from worldly cares and brings you closer to me.

I asked God to make my spirit grow.

God said, No.

You must grow on your own! ,

but I will prune you to make you fruitful.

I asked God for all things that I might enjoy life.

God said no

I will give you life, so that you may enjoy all things.

I ask God to help me LOVE others, as much as He loves me.

God said...Ahhhh, finally you have the idea.

THIS DAY IS YOURS DON'T THROW IT AWAY May God Bless You,

"To the world you might be one person, but to one person you just might be the world"

I ASKED GOD TO SAVE MY SOUL AND IMMEDIATELY I WAS CHANGED, BROUGHT OUT OF DARKNESS INTO His marvelous light. He gave me a new robe of Righteousness and now my name is written in the lamb's book of life. Than I said Yes, yes, yes, yes. Amen, Amen. Amen, Amen

WHAT IS YOUR TESTIMONY? DOES IT REALLY MATTER IF HE SAYS NO TO ALL YOUR DEMANDS?

I am very optimistic and excited for this new year. God is always faithful to lead and Guide and I know He has nothing but good planned for those that trust in Him. He is the door! Amen.

Introduction To The Sermon On The Mount (5:1-2)

1. In Matthew 5-7, we have recorded the most famous sermon that has ever been preached...
  - a. Commonly referred to as "The Sermon On The Mount"
  - b. It has touched more hearts, and in turn has sparked more sermons than any other
2. In Mt 5:1-2, the setting for the sermon is given...
  - a. He saw the multitudes that were following Him - Mt 4:25
  - b. He therefore ascended a mountain
    - 1) Many believe this refers to a natural amphitheater between the "Horns of Hattin", on a slope that arises above Capernaum (Believers' Study Bible)
    - 2) This may be the same occasion as "The Sermon On The Plain" - cf. Lk 6:17-49
  - c. When His disciples came to Him, He sat down and began to speak
    - 1) It was common to speak while sitting, rather than standing as we do today
    - 2) Cf. Mt 13:1-2; Jn 8:2
3. What is Jesus talking about in this sermon?
  - a. What is the main "THEME?"
  - b. What is the "CONTENT" of this sermon?

[In this study we shall introduce "The Sermon On The Mount" by seeking to answer these two questions. To begin, let's determine...]

I. THE "THEME" OF THE SERMON

A. NOTE THE "SETTING" LEADING UP TO THE SERMON...

1. In Mt 3:1-3, we read of the preaching of John the Baptist
    - a. Who was sent to prepare the way of the Lord
    - b. The theme of his preaching concerned "the kingdom of heaven"
  2. In Mt 4, we read of the beginning of Jesus' ministry
    - a. After His temptation, Jesus preaches a message similar to John's - Mt 4:17
    - b. His preaching in Galilee pertained to the "gospel of the kingdom" - Mt 4:23
- Could Jesus' theme be "the kingdom of heaven"?

B. NOTE A "PHRASE" USED THROUGHOUT THE SERMON...

1. "for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" - Mt 5:3
  2. "for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" - Mt 5:10
  3. "...shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven" - Mt 5:19
  4. "...shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven" - Mt 5:19
  5. "...will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven" - Mt 5:20
  6. "Your kingdom come" - Mt 6:10
  7. "But seek first the kingdom of God" - Mt 6:33
  8. "... shall enter the kingdom of heaven" - Mt 7:21
- Isn't Jesus talking about "the kingdom of heaven"?

[Both the setting and His repeated use a particular phrase should lead us to conclude that the "theme" of Jesus' sermon on the mount is:

"THE GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN"

With this in mind, let's briefly consider the "content" of the sermon as I offer the following outline...]

II. THE "CONTENT" OF THE SERMON

A. THE "CITIZENS" OF THE KINGDOM...

1. Their character and blessedness - Mt 5:3-12
  - a. Qualities to be found in those who will be citizens of this kingdom
  - b. The blessings enjoyed by these citizens
2. Their relation to the world - Mt 5:13-16
  - a. They are the salt of the earth
  - b. They are the light of the world

B. THE "RIGHTEOUSNESS" OF THE KINGDOM...

1. In contrast to the "traditional interpretations and applications" of the Law - Mt 5:17-48
  - a. Jesus has not come to destroy or show disrespect to the Law
    - 1) It will not pass away until it is fulfilled
    - 2) Those who violate it teach contrary to it (while it exists) will be least in the kingdom
  - b. Jesus does require that the righteousness of those in the kingdom exceed the righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees
  - c. He illustrates by a series of contrasts concerning:
    - 1) Murder and anger
    - 2) Adultery
    - 3) Divorce
    - 4) The swearing of oaths
    - 5) The taking of revenge
    - 6) The treatment of enemies
- In each case His teaching is consistent with the Law, but not the traditional interpretations and applications of the Law
2. With respect to man's relation to God - Mt 6:1-33

Have you been born again of water and the Spirit? - Mk 16:16; Acts 2:38

Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God (Jn 3:3-5)

Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Have you responded to the exhortation to enter the kingdom? Remember the words of our Lord to Nicodemus...

CONCLUSION<sup>1</sup>. In view of its content, we can appreciate why this sermon has been called...

- a. The Magna Carta of His Kingdom
- b. The Manifesto of the King

C. THE "EXHORTATION TO ENTER" THE KINGDOM...

- 1. The "beginning" of the way - Mt 7:13-14
  - a. It will be narrow and difficult
  - b. Not many will find it
- 2. The "progress" along the way - Mt 7:15-20
  - a. Beware of false prophets who are wolves in sheep's clothing
  - b. You will know them by their fruits
- 3. The "end" of the way - Mt 7:21-27
  - a. In which "sayers" will be contrasted with "doers"
  - b. In which "hearers" will be contrasted with "doers"

- a. Charitable deeds
- b. Prayer
- c. Fasting
- d. Materialism
- e. Anxiety
- 3. With respect to man's relation to man - Mt 7:1-12
  - a. Judging others
  - b. Asking, seeking, knocking
  - c. The golden rule

The Law of God and the Son

The Relationship Of Christ To The Law

"Think not that I am come to destroy the law of the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth shall pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." (Mt. 5:17,18)

Temptation LIFE OF CHRIST

"...God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it." 1 Corinthians 10:13

I. Who or what is the source of temptation?

A God does not tempt man.

James 1:13

B. Satan is called "the tempter."

Mat 4:1, 3; Mk 1:13; 1 Corin 7:5; 1 Chron 21:1; 1 Thes 3:5

C. Temptation comes from our own lusts.

James 2:14, 15; 1 John 2:16

II. God has put certain restrictions upon Satan's efforts.

A. God never allows us to be tempted beyond our ability to endure & triumph victoriously.

1 Corin 10:13

B. Satan is limited in his power in that he must request permission of God to come against us.

Job 1:12

III. Why does God allow temptation?

A. The primary purpose of temptation, if overcome, is to "perfect" us, or to make us complete.

Job 23:10; Jas 1:1-4

B. We have the choice of what to do with each temptation: either to overcome it by God's grace; or, to yield to it in sin.

1. The reward for victory over temptation will be the crown of life.

Jas 1:12; Revel 3:11

2. The result of defeat under temptation is death.

Ezek 18:4; Jas 1:15

IV. How can temptation be overcome?

A. By faith.

1 Pet 5:9; 1 Jn 5:4

B. By the Word of God.

Mat 4; Luke 4 ("...it is written...")

C. By prayer.

Mat 6:13; Lu 22:40, 46

V. In fighting temptation, it is important that the child of God recognize exactly what he is up against. "We are not ignorant of [Satan's] devices." 2 Corin 2:11

A. We do not fight "against flesh & blood" (things in the natural realm), "but against...spiritual wickedness..."

Eph 6:12; 2 Corin10:3-5

B. Satan deals most successfully in the realm of deception.

Gen 3:1; Mat 4:3; 2 Corin 11:3

C. Satan operates in the soulish realm, too--that of the mind, will and emotions--for our thoughts have yet to be put under subjection to Christ.

2 Corin 11:3

VI. Much can be learned from the account of Jesus' temptation in the wilderness.

A. Jesus was tempted on all three levels: 1. the lust of the flesh; 2. the lust of the eyes; and 3. the pride of life. (Mat 4; Lu 4) This was the same means by which Satan tempted Eve (Gen 3:6), and it is the same way he tries to make us fall today (1 Jn 2:15-17).

B. This is what God means when He says that Jesus was "in all points tempted like as we are."

Heb 4:15

C. However, Jesus never yielded to temptation. He never sinned.

Jn 8:29; 14:30; 2 Corin 5:21; Heb 4:15; 7:26; 10:7 1 Pet 2:22; 1:19; 1 Jn 3:5

D. Therefore, Jesus Christ is qualified to be an understanding Mediator (go-between) for man.

Heb 2:17, 18

SILENT MOMENT #3
Pleasing One

Mt:6:24: No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

The story is told of a painter who desired to produce one work that would please the entire world. Marshaling all of her skills, she drew a picture and took it to the marketplace. At the bottom of the piece, she posted the directions for spectators to mark each portion of the picture that did not meet their approval. The spectators came, and in general applauded her work. However, eager to make a personal critique each person marked a small portion of the picture. By evening, the painter was mortified to find the entire picture had become a blot.

The next day the painter returned with a copy of the original picture. This time she asked the spectators to mark the portion of the work they admired. The spectators again complied. When the artist returned several hours later, she found that every stroke that had been panned the day before had received praise by this day's critics.

The artist concluded "I now believe the best way to please one-half the world is not to mind what the other half says."

People will always have an opinion about what we say or do. That's why we need to live our lives according to the Words of the Bible__opinion. What we do, we will not fret over the opinions of others, because God's opinion is the only one that merits our efforts.

THE FORMULA FOR FAILURE, TRY TO PLEASE EVERYONE.

Jesus

Author Unknown

Dear Friend,
I just had to write to tell you how much I love you and care for you.

Yesterday, I saw you walking and laughing with your friends; I hoped that soon you'd want Me to walk along with you, too. So, I painted you a sunset to close your day and whispered a cool breeze to refresh you. I waited; you never called. I just kept on loving you.

As I watched you fall asleep last night, I wanted so much to touch you. I spilled moonlight onto your face trickling down your cheeks as so many tears have. You didn't even think of me; I wanted so much to comfort you.

The next day I exploded a brilliant sunrise into a glorious morning for you. But you woke up late and rushed off to work-you didn't even notice.

My sky became cloudy and My tears were the rain.

I love you! Oh, if you'd only listen. I really love you! I try to say it in the quiet of the green meadow and in the blue sky. The wind whispers My love throughout the treetops and spills it into the vibrant colors of the flowers.

I shout it to you in the thunder of the great waterfalls and composed love songs for birds to sing for you. I warm you with the clothing of My sunshine and perfume the air with nature's sweet scent.

My love for you is deeper than the ocean and greater than any need in your heart. If you'd only realize how I care. I died just for you. My Dad sends His love. I want you to meet Him. He cares, too. Fathers are just that way.

So please call Me soon. No matter how long it takes, I'll wait because I love you.

Your Friend,
Jesus

"What a friend we have in Jesus! Jesus knows our every weakness." Every time I read His love letter I encouraged and strengthened. His provision for man is so COMPLETE. Thank you Lord!

A different Mother's Day

Long, long ago so I 've been told there were two mothers on the streets of glory sharing all the wonders of this celestial city, New Jerusalem.

"By the stars in your crown, " said one to the other, "I see that on earth, you, too were a mother."

"Aye yes, I once had a son, sweet boy full of laughter and fun."

"But tell of your son..."

"Oh, I knew he was blessed from the moment I held Him close to me, and my heart almost burst with the joy of that day."

"Ah, yes, "said the other mother""I too felt the same way."

The first mother continued, "The first step he took, so timid and careful, that sweet startled look that came over His face...He trusted me so."

"Ah, yes, "said the other, "How well I know."

"But soon he had grown to a tall handsome boy, kingly that it gave me great joy just to have Him walk down the street by my side."

"Oh, yes, "cried the other. "I felt the same pride."

"How often I shielded and spared him from pain, for other s was so cruelly slain, when they crucified Him and spit in His face, How gladly would I have died to take His place."

A moment of silence, "Ah, then you are she, the mother of Christ" and she fell on one knee.

But blessed one raised her drawing her near, kissed from the cheek of the woman, a tear.

"Tell of your son, the one you loved so, that I may share with you your grief and your woe.."

She raised her eyes and look straight at the other, and said, and said,

He was Judas Iscariot.....I am his mother."

SO SEND I YOU

Margaret Clarkson, who was born in 1915, was a teacher in a gold-mining camp in northern Ontario, Canada. It was a lonely life for this woman, but she also knew that this is where God wanted her to serve Him. She had a great desire to be a missionary on a foreign field but because of her health was unable to go. One day she was reading again the verse John 20:21, "Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you." While meditating on this verse she wrote the words to a hymn that has become a favorite during missionary conferences, "So Send I You." Maybe after reading the words to this hymn a person would fear the call to missions. But, what a person must understand is that when God calls, He gives such a great desire that all else is unsatisfying and empty.

*So send I you to labor unrewarded,
To serve unpaid, unloved, unsought, unknown,
To bear rebuke, to suffer scorn and scoffing-
So send I you to toil for me alone.*

*So send I you to bind the bruised and broken,
O'er wand'ring souls to work, to weep, to wake,
To bear the burdens of a world weary-
So send I you to suffer for My sake.*

*So send I you to loneliness and longing,
With heart ahung'ring for the loved and known,
Forsaking home and kindred, friend and dear one-
So send I you to know My love alone.*

*So send I you to leave your life's ambition,
To die to dear desire, self-will resign,
To labor long, and love where men revile you-
So send I you to love your life in Mine.*

*So send I you to hearts made hard by hatred,
To eyes made blind because they will not see,
To spend, tho' it be blood, to spend and spare not-
So send I you to taste of Calvary.*

Freedom of religion and religious beliefs is a fundamental right in Holland. This means that people are free to worship as they choose, either individually or in groups, provided they remain within the boundaries imposed by the law and respect others (for example with regard to noise levels, health hazards and disturbances of the peace). In Holland, church and state are separate. The government does not interfere in the internal affairs of organizations that profess religious or philosophical beliefs, and the latter do not interfere with matters of state. Of the population 41% is not religious, 27% Roman Catholic, 23% Protestant and 9% of other religion (including Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism).

Total Population (2002): 16,067,754 (Second most densely populated country in the world to Singapore)

Percentages of Ethnic Groups: Dutch - 83%, Other - 17% (9% Non-Western, mostly Slavic)

Languages Spoken: National Language - Dutch. English is nearly universal and this is a source of pride for the Dutch.

John 20:21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

Those Who Love You

If anyone should hurt you
And say a thing unkind,
Remember what I tell you,
And keep these things in mind.

For every one who makes you cry,
There are three who make you smile,
And a smile will last a long, long time,
But a tear just a little while!

If someone says a thing that's cruel,
Don't let it get to you,
There's so much good about you,
And your faults are very few.

So if a certain someone
Should act a certain way,
Just think of those who love you
And don't let it ruin your day.

Don't let someone who hates the world
Cause you to hate it too,
For behind the clouds is a golden sun,
And a sky that's bright and blue!

Philippians 1:6 God, who began a good work in you, will continue His work until it is finally finished. Ecclesiastes 3:1 For everything there is a season.

Sixty beautiful long stemmed roses - what a sight! The mixed bouquet or red, pink, white and yellow mingled together to make an exquisite arrangement.

My sisters' children surprised her with these to celebrate a most special birthday, and she was thrilled with the gift. She said, "I watched them all day, unfolding a little at a time." "When they die", she continued, "I plan to dry them so that I might still enjoy them."

I looked at those roses and noticed something interesting. Each day, as they unfolded, each color did so at its own speed. The pink and white were the first but the red never did. They just stayed in bud the entire week I was visiting. The yellow were the first to wilt and begin to die-their beautiful heads drooping toward the ground. Each color in the bouquet was set on its path of blooming, so to speak. Each held great beauty, ready to unfold in its own time. I believe God looks at us just as my sister looked at her bouquet. We are His bouquet of love, and He watches us unfold and change. He sees the beauty in each of His children. no matter the speed we blossom. He sees us as we are in tight bud at first, holding all the love He has bestowed upon us . Then we begin to open up to the power of the Holy Spirit, and as we unfold we share what He has given us, we become more beautiful. In full bloom, we are what He has called us to be here on earth, and then we, like the rose, wither and die. But we will not be forgotten, for when God uses us to touch the lives of others, the memory of His love will remain with them. Are you a rose in God's bouquet? It is a delight and privilege to be in this spiritual flower arrangement, and He invites you to be a part of it.
